FIND SOMETHING AWESOME!

A Powerful Book Series that Teaches Kids All the Wisdom of Adult Self Help Books in a Way that They Will Love, Understand and Apply

Recommended by Teachers, Therapists, Parents and Kids!

“Matt Scott's fun approach to writing teaches the often-overlooked value of positive thinking! ... ‘Find Something Awesome’ is the building block that nurtures children's self-image and overall sense of well-being!”

- Monique Wilson, 4th grade teacher, Alta Vista Elementary

INTRODUCTION: This new children's book series offers parents a gentle yet powerful parenting tool that teaches kids all the 'self-help' wisdom and life lessons you learned the hard way and later in life - in a fun and universal book series that kids can easily relate to.

Each title in the series is lighthearted, easy-to-read, and beautifully illustrated. The books teach kids what their brains can do through the powers (and FUN!) of positive thinking, Gratitude, and Visualization to create desired outcomes in life, build self-confidence, and develop life-long skills for a happy childhood and successful adulthood.

Divided into 4 Levels, each title in the series shows kids how to become the master of their thoughts to build a strong, capable, and self-confident inner-foundation.

Level 1 What Color Is Your Butterfly? What you think is how you feel. Level 1 helps kids train their brain to 'FIND SOMETHING AWESOME!' so they will feel awesome!

Level 2: Have You Ever Thanked a Rainbow? Teaches kids the power (and fun!) of positive thinking and gratitude in everyday life by showing them how gratitude makes good thoughts grow.

Level 3 Did You Laugh When You Stubbed your Toe? Kids learn how to turn negative feeling around by observing their thoughts and then re-focusing with positive self-talk: "I am awesome! I can do this!"

Level 4: Have You Seen What the World Does? Teaches kids the power of self-confidence and positive visualization to create successful outcomes in life!

"I want to give not just to MY kids but ALL children - and as early on as possible - the knowledge and steps necessary to create true happiness and success. How? By understanding how our brains really work and how the world responds to positive thinking and focused imagination!"

- Matt Scott, author of the FIND SOMETHING AWESOME! book series

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: A Montana native, Matt is an active believer and dedicated reader of success and self-help books. He knows that EVERYONE'S brains are capable of FINDING SOMETHING AWESOME! to live an awesome life. He says, "Learning how to take control of their thoughts is the first step for kids to create a happy childhood and life!" Matt was inspired to create the FIND SOMETHING AWESOME! book series to introduce and communicate to kids the power of their brains and focused thinking in a fun and universal approach for this younger audience. He lives in Los Angeles with his wife and three children.
